

Peter & Andrew

His story related to cock, because he denied Christ three times even before the sun rose on the day of Christ's death

The keys were the keys of the kingdom of heaven, the power of binding and loosing is committed to Peter.

His original symbol changed the color to match the palette.

He was crucified upside down because he felt unworthy to die in the same manner as Jesus Christ.

Peter was the first pope of Vatican

His background was fisherman, a native of Bethsaida in Galilee.

St Andrew is a patron saint of Scotland and Russia

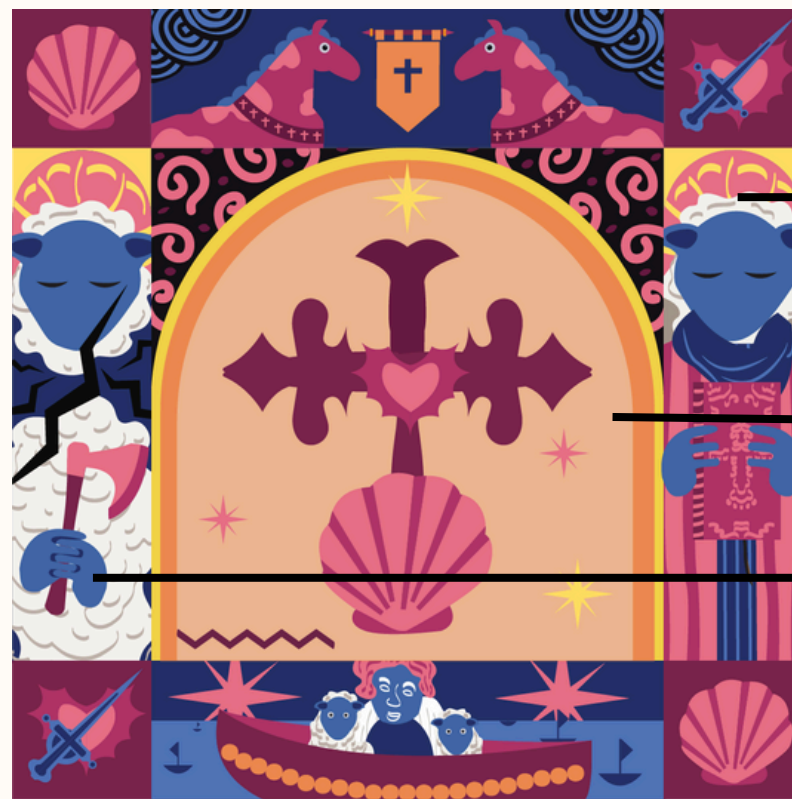

St Andrew was the first called to follow Jesus, this window describe the night he met Jesus

Candle in Christianity has spiritual meaning. It presents for the hope and renewal brought by the birth, death, and resurrection of Jesus

James the Great & John

He is the military patron of Spain. Legend said that James appeared on the battlefield of Spain, riding a white horse and bearing a white banner, promising to help them defend their enemies.

The keys were the keys of the kingdom of heaven, the power of binding and loosing is committed to Peter.

His original symbol are 3 scallop shells

The lighting symbolizes his calling, "Son of Thunder"

He met Christ while fishing with his brother James on the Sea of Galilee. Also, the boat presented for the place where his dead body was put after his beheading

Some recorded that he was attempting to drink a cup of poisonous for his faith, and thanks to God's aid, the poison was become harmless.

He was intended to build a church for God

his original symbol

When preaching, he was thrown in boiling oil as a punishment and magically escaped unscathed.

John's symbol includes an eagle - the Four Evangelists' symbols. He was one of the four Gospel writers.

Phillip & Matthew

Phillip was called as a bearded man holding a basket of bread or loaves of bread to symbolize him serving bread to the 5,000.

The legend of his miracle: he defended a dragon, healed the sick, raised the three dead persons.

His symbol is a Latin cross, 2 fishes and basket of bread

Some suggest that he was crucifixion by the Roman Emperor Domitian.

The place where he preached.

It is said that Matthew wrote the Gospel under the guidance of an angel.
(a winged man)

Some traditions tell that he was martyred by a sword in Ethiopia while celebrating Mass.

His symbol is the angle standing in a money bag, his book opens with the human descendants of Jesus.

He was one of four Gospel writers associated with

John

Inspired by an old Greek bank because he used to be a tax collector. Also, nowadays, he is a patron saint of bankers, accountants, bookkeepers, stockbrokers, security guards and tax collectors.

Thomas & James the Less

He was preached in India

He was famous for “the Doubting Hand” story of Jesus' resurrection.

His symbol includes arrows, stones, Thomas cross, a square ruler (symbolizing in the cross)

Until he could see and touch the wounds of God, his skepticism changed into wholly believing in the resurrection of Jesus.

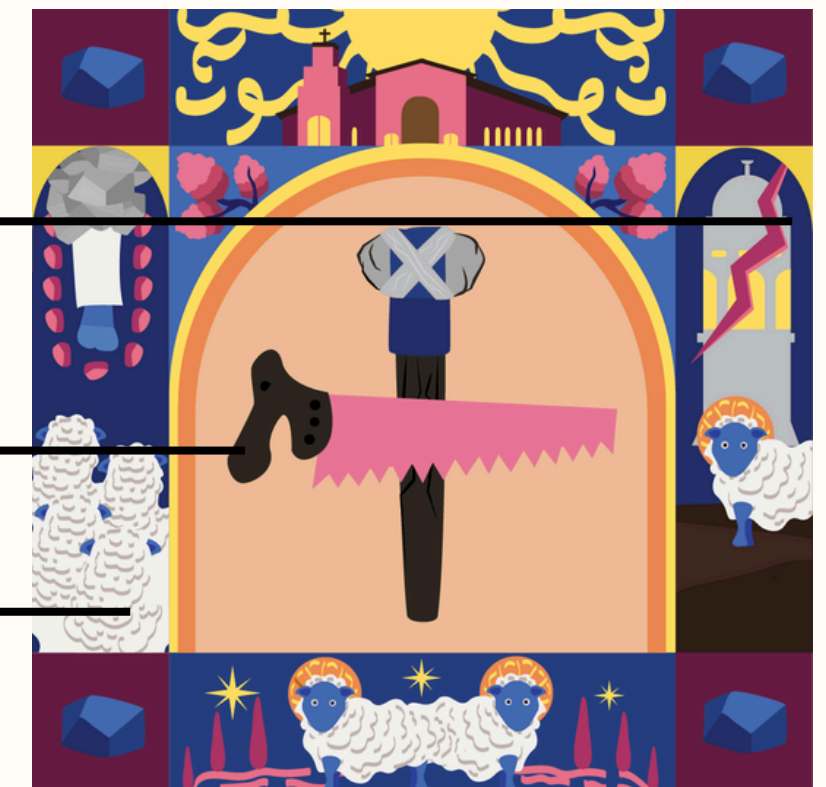

Some traditions said the his past career related to wine.

Some recorded that he was the leader of Jerusalem church after Christ's death

Some traditions said he was thrown down from the pinnacle of the Temple in Jerusalem

His symbols includes a fuller club and a saw

He was stoned to death

There was unidentifiable evidences that he was the brother of Jesus (twin lambs) or there were 3 James mentioned in the Bible (3 different sizes of stars)

Bartholomew & Simon

Fig trees have many spiritual meanings in Christianity about protection (its shadow) and a reminder of sin (fig leaves)

Inspired by the church by his name, beginning built-in 1892 with donations from the local Christian crowd.

The place where Jesus met Bartholomew for the first time and said: "I saw you under the fig tree" (Jn 1:48b).

His symbol is flying knives for his death, and we re-create his skin hanging on the cross for his death for God.

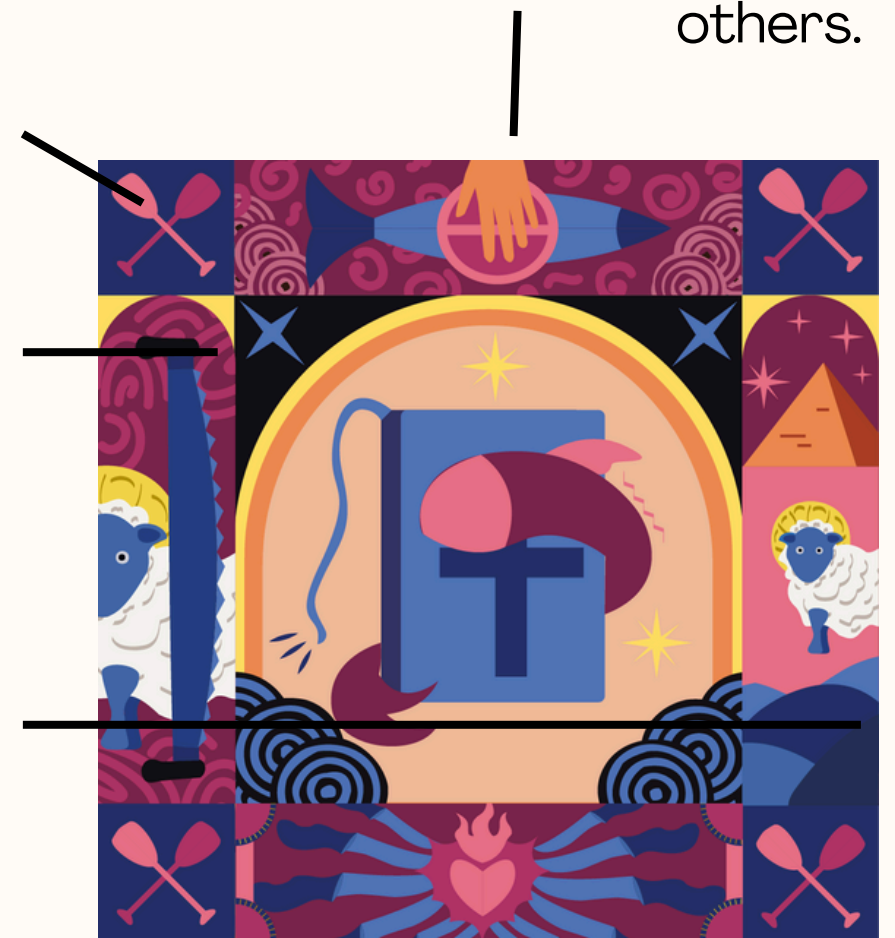

He was prayed under the fig tree with no dishonesty in his heart. His faith for God was recognized at the beginning

Christ is related to fish. The fish is a sign of the Christian Faith (alpha shape), used during persecution to identify others.

When preaching, he travel by a boat to London

Tradition says that he was martyred by being sawn in half.

He preached the Gospel around South Africa (Egypt and Africa, then through Mauretania and all of Libya).

The heart presents his zealot for his lord and not to be effected by any sayings.

Judas & Thaddeus

Judas was the main reason for Christ's death.

He was famous for “the Judas kiss”- a symbol of treachery and deceit.

His original symbol is 30 silver coins, and we re-created it with the upside down cross implied for his betray.

Although he regretted his actions, he returned the coins. He was still overwhelmed and hanged himself, some said that his soul was taken by the devil to the Hell.

Inspired by “The Last Supper,”. His action of spilling salt could be a sign of disruption of purity in some traditions, implying for his betray Christ later.

Thaddeus' life before meeting Jesus was possibly related to fishing or trading.

Armenia- the place where he was executed by an ax (in his symbol)

Based on the “Acts of Thaddeus” book, describes the journey of Thaddeus going to Edessa and performing miracles to heal Abgar King Abgar V via the medal of God (his symbol)

The heart implies the votary of him to God. Some traditions say Easter LiLy flowers (2 sides of the heart) show the purity and hope and the trust of him that Gods came back.